

CHICKS and CHUCKLES

SEPTEMBER, 1958

25c

"Well, Chief, that slippery peeping-tom is through peeping at last!"

Diana Crawford

SPECIAL: "Modern Girl"

A black and white photograph of a woman with long dark hair, seen from the back and side. She is wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved dress with a ruffled hem. She is standing in a room with a window in the background, looking out. To her right is a dark-colored stove with ornate knobs. In the bottom left corner, there is a textured, possibly knitted, object. A black text box is overlaid on the right side of the image.

Summer's here and the grueling heat is beating down on all of us, even pretty girls. Judy Mason has trouble sleeping when it's 98° in the shade. Got any recommendations for the gal?

LOOKING IN

There's nothing like stealing a look at a girl when she's at her dressing table. Pretty Sandy Deutsch doesn't seem to mind our looking in. Maybe she's glad to have secret admirers.

CRAWFORD

Our cover girl this month is pert, saucy Diana Crawford, an English lass who has just hit these shores. Diana is 22, stands 5'5" and tips the scales at a firm 115 pounds.

She likes "blues music, tennis, oysters and my blue Persian cat." She does not like "cowboy movies, rock and roll music, TV commercials, and drinking tea." She says she's in America to stay, "if they'll let me."

WILL WE EVER!

Modern Marge Moran

There's no doubt about it, hazel-eyed Marge Moran is a modern girl.

The 5'2" native of San Francisco says some day she will build a house which will be "strictly modern." Her Irish features light up when she describes it. The whole layout—furniture, landscape, everything—is going to be from the latest designs. (cont'd)

She has set ideas on who's going to share this dreamhouse, too. "Marriage to a kind, considerate man," says Marge, "is all any girl really wants."

So far, Marge, who makes her living singing and occasionally slipping in a TV show here and there, has not found the man who is able to "make me settle down." She's probably looking for a modern man, one to match her own up-to-the-minute streamlined lines!

Red-Head In A Tub

Joni Hurlburt is washing all her troubles away. She says she sometimes spends two hours at a time this way. If we were washing the redhead's back, we'd probably spend two years getting the job properly done! Wouldn't you do the same?

all about blonds

Blonds come in all shapes and sizes. Sandra Dorne is a tall, brown-eyed one. A single girl, she claims she has yet to meet the man just right for her. Sandra works on TV, claims she'd rather wear a shawl than anything else. On the next page you'll see that it takes more than one kind of blond to make the world go round.

Marion Michaels (left) is 16 years old, lives in Germany, makes movies, and is said to charm on sight any man who looks at her. She's called by one German producer "a sweet child." But another rages: "She's all woman—she'll be the downfall of everyone of us before she's through!" Florida model Betty O'Rae (below) is not out to be the downfall of anybody, says she just likes to go to the beach in lingerie, instead of the customary bathing suits. Maybe she'll start a fad!

"Don't just stand there and look at them. Go ahead, grab a handful."

Elena Fancera is saying it with flowers, or so she claims. We feel she's saying it with oomph. No matter how or what, she's SAYING IT!
